

Nelson Street

Our street names reflect our history. Nelson Street, for example, at the top of the High Street, in Stroud.

Everyone knows about Lord Nelson, the hero of Trafalgar. But few people know about a Nelson backstory involving a woman of colour who saved his life. Without her, the Battle of Trafalgar could have been lost ... in a manner of speaking. Perhaps she should be remembered with a street or house name? You might like to read from the link below and discuss that question.
